at 1600 on Saturday 02 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rather cold and cloudy with some showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cold and cloudy, with some showery rain and perhaps sleet in places. This will be heaviest and most frequent in coastal districts given the raw onshore breeze. Frost developing in limited clear spells inland. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Sunday:
Remaining rather cold and mainly cloudy throughout, with some further showers moving onshore. These will be again heavy at times, with a small chance of thunder. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cold, cloudy and breezy, with a raw-feeling breeze bringing spells of showery rain and perhaps occasional sleet. Probably brightest on Wednesday. Overnight icy patches and frosts are possible throughout.
